

Dangerous Consumptions Colloquium

The Dangerous Consumptions Colloquium ANU, Canberra 30th June & 1st July 2022

Address

Marie Reay Teaching Centre (Building 155)

Room 3.02

DAY 1. - THURSDAY 30TH JUNE

| TIME                       | PRESENTER                              | AFFILIATION  | TITLE   |
|----------------------------|--|--|---|
| BIG THREATS                |  |  |   |
| 9.30 - 10.00 am            | Kari Lancaster                         | Centre for Social Research in Health, UNSW   | Evidence-making ‘outbreak’  |
| 10.00-10.30 am             | Celia Roberts                          | School of Sociology, ANU   | Having Children, Dangerous Consumption  |
| 10.30-11.00am              | Sophie Adams                           | Centre for Social Research in Health, UNSW   | Eliminating and learning to live with COVID-19: Modelling Australia's way through the pandemic                              |
| 11.00-11.30 am MORNING TEA |  |  |   |
| PLACE AND SPACE            |  |  |   |
| 11.30-12noon               | Mia Harrison                           | Centre for Social Research in Health, (UNSW)   | Making a Hospital: Care Matters in Covid-19   |
| 12-12.30pm                 | George (Kev) Dertadian & Kenneth Yates | Faculty of Law and Justice, University of New South WalesSchool of Social Science, Western Sydney University | “Overdose has many faces”: The politics of care in responding to overdose at Sydney’s Medically Supervised Injecting Centre |
| 12.30-1pm                  | Isabelle Volpe                         | Drug Policy Modelling Program, Social Policy Research Centre, UNSW   | Regulating our way out? The effects of regulating drug-related content on TikTok.   |
| 1 - 2 pm LUNCH             |  |  |   |
| CONSTITUTIONS OF HEALTH    |  |  |   |
| 2-2.30pm                   | Isabel Mudford                         | School of Sociology, ANU   | LGBTI Health, Minority Stress and Queer Smoking   |

PROGRAM THURSDAY 30TH JUNE (CONT.)

|                 |                |  |   |
|-----------------|----------------|--|---|
| 2.30-3pm        | Marianne Clark | Vitalities Lab,UNSW  | Let's get physical (but not too physical!):Tracing pleasure and danger in exercise consumption                                    |
| 3-3.30pm        | Gemma Nourse   | Australian Research Centre in Sex, Health and Society,La Trobe University                          | Drugs, gender, risk and rationality as co-constituted by Australian men who consume performance and image-enhancing drugs (PIEDs) |
| 3.30 – 4.00 pm  |                | AFTERNOON TEA  |   |
| CONSUMER VOICES |                |  |   |
| 4.00 - 4.30 pm  | Rebecca Askew  | Manchester Metropolitan University, UK;Visiting Fellow, Drug Policy Modelling Program (DPMP), UNSW | Using a values-led approach to understand key tensions in drug policy debates: Findings from the UK Drug Policy Voices project.   |
| 4.30 – 5.00 pm  | Daniel Reeders | School of Regulation and Global Governance, ANU  | An objectionable sentence and a reflection on comprehensibility   |
| 6.00 pm         |                | Symposium Dinner (TBC) – RSVP required   |   |

DAY 2. - FRIDAY 1ST JULY

| TIME  | PRESENTER    | AFFILIATION                                   | TITLE  |
|---|--------------|---|--|
| SPECIAL PANEL –DRUG DECRIMINALISATION IN THE ACT: THE POSSIBILITIES AND DANGERS |              |   |  |
| 10.00 – 11.00 am  |              |   |  |
| 11.00 –11.30 am   |              | MORNING TEA                                   |  |
| EVIDENCE AND DATA   |              |   |  |
| 11.30 – 12 noon   | Anna Olsen   | School of Medicine and Psychology, ANU        | Drug testing evidence and data   |
| 12.00 - 12.30 pm  | Emily Lenton | Australian Research Centre in Sex, Health and | Hepatitis C data justice: The implications of data-driven approaches to the elimination of hepatitis C |

|                           |                     |   |   |
|---------------------------|---------------------|---|---|
|                           |                     | Society, La Trobe University  |   |
| 12.30 – 1.00 pm           | Dean Murphy         | Kirby Institute, UNSW   | Hook up apps as surveillance technologies   |
| 1.00 – 2.00 pm            |                     | LUNCH   |   |
| A DIFFERENT POINT OF VIEW |                     |   |   |
| 2.00 -2.30 pm             | Giselle Newton      | Centre for Social Research in Health, UNSW  | Conception, deception, repeat?: Donor-conceived adults’ views on (in)justice and change |
| 2.30 – 3.00 pm            | Charles Livingstone | School of Public Health and Preventive Medicine, Monash University                          | All the monsters: Crown, power, & research  |
| 3.00 - 3.30 pm            | Peter Adams         | Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences, Social and Community Health, University of Auckland | Monster metaphors: when rhetoric gets nasty   |
| 3.30 – 4.00 pm            |                     | AFTERNOON TEA   |   |
| ALCOHOL CONSUMPTION       |                     |   |   |
| 4.00 - 4.30 pm            | Maggie Brady        | The Centre for Aboriginal Economic Policy Research (CAEPR), ANU                             | Homage or appropriation? The wine industry’s enchantment with Indigenous imagery        |
| 4.30 – 5.00 pm            | Helen Keane         | School of Sociology, ANU  | The drinking at home woman  |